Tommy Foggo – Superhero
SATURDAY 11 MAY
2.30PM
A magical multi-media tale of a life saved by music for 7+ and their guardians, based on a true story. Tommy's mum had told him to wait for her at the bus stop and never showed up again. It felt to Tommy like he'd been stuck there for a zillion years - even after he'd been taken to live in the children’s home. And then, one day, he runs away - to the seaside, where he finds Destino, a talking cello with a mission. Will Tommy be big enough to defeat the terrifying Kraken of the Deep and rescue the Queen of Lost Atlantis?

Brought to you by award-winning composer Stephen Deazley, writer Martin Riley and 'extraordinary cellist, virile baritone & compelling actor' (The Telegraph), Matthew Sharp.

St Barnabas Parish Hall, Dulwich Village
Suitable age 7+
Tickets: £10, concessions £5, family (2 adults, 2 children) £28, plus Eventbrite booking fee if booked online

I, Malvolio by Tim Crouch
WEDNESDAY 15 MAY
7.30PM
I, Malvolio re-imagines Shakespeare’s Twelfth Night from the point of view of its most notoriously abused steward. It’s a charged, hilarious and sometimes unsettling rant from a man adrift in front of a cruel audience. Part abject clown, part theatre-hating disciplinarian, Malvolio asks his audience to explore the pleasure we take in other people's suffering.

I, Malvolio has toured the world since it opened in 2010 – from Shanghai to Sydney, from Moscow to Mumbai. This is a rare chance to see a performance by one of the UK’s most original theatre makers. Tim Crouch is an Obie-award winning performer, playwright and director.

‘Crouch’s fresh, funny, poignant and thought-provoking I, Malvolio is his finest work to-date.' The Telegraph

The George Farha Auditorium, Dulwich College
Suitable age 11+
Tickets: £15, concessions £8, family (2 adults, 2 children) £40, plus Eventbrite booking fee if booked online
Much Ado About Nothing with The Handlebards
SATURDAY 18 MAY
4PM
The world’s first cycling theatre company, pedal from venue to venue with all set, props and costume necessary to perform environmentally sustainable Shakespeare. Expect riotous amounts of energy, a fair old whack of chaos, and a great deal of laughter.

And what’s the play about? Well - a group of soldiers return from the war to a household in Messina, causing the kindling of new love interests and the re-kindling of old rivalries. The parallel love stories of Beatrice, Benedick, Claudio and Hero become entangled with plotting, frivolity and melodrama in Shakespeare’s famous comedy.

This is an outdoor production, so please bring your own chair or blanket to sit on, a picnic to dig into, and dress for the weather!

Sponsored by Glazer Delmar

JAGS Fields, Copper Beech Café, JAGS Sports Club
Tickets: £18, concessions £8, under 10s FREE, family (2 adults, 2 children) £50, plus Eventbrite booking fee if booked online

Dulwich History Walk with Brian Green
SUNDAY 19 MAY
10.30AM & 2.30PM
A scenic walk led by local historian Brian Green to discover how the decline of farming in Dulwich coincided with the demand for facilities and space to accommodate the rise in interest in sports like cricket, tennis, golf, football and cycling. Thanks to the co-operation of a number of sports clubs, the walk will tread the ground which in ancient times once formed the old village of Dulwich’s medieval common fields and in later centuries its pastures and cornfields.

Meet at North Dulwich railway station
Tickets: £6, concessions £4, plus Eventbrite booking fee if booked online
Talks

Words in Pain by Olga Jacoby
MONDAY 13 MAY
7.30PM
Join a discussion with the editors of Words in Pain, Jocelyn Catty and Trevor Moore, with readings from their embellished centenary edition of the collected letters of Olga Jacoby, a writer, thinker and rationalist who wrote them ‘under the sentence of death’ due to a terminal heart condition. She died leaving four young adopted children. The 1919 edition bore no author's name because of the wish for family privacy. Detective work led to the discovery of Olga's identity. The engaging letters brim with Olga's clear-headed musings on the nature of illness, loss and death, yet remain full of hope.

Bell House, College Road, SE21
Tickets (includes refreshment): £8, concessions £6, plus Eventbrite booking fee if booked online

East Dulwich's Pubs & Beer Houses – A Short History
TUESDAY 14 MAY
2PM - 4PM
Ian McInnes will give an illustrated talk about the large number of pubs built in the area between 1860 and 1910, the families who owned them and the publicans who ran them.

Dulwich Library, Lordship Lane, SE22

The Experience of the Kindertransport – Film Screening & Panel Discussion
THURSDAY 16 MAY
7.30PM – 9.30PM
80 years ago 10,000 children came to Britain as unaccompanied refugees on the Kindertransport from Germany, Austria and Czechoslovakia, escaping Nazi Europe. Following a screening of some extracts of interviews, the panel discussion with two former Kinder, chaired by Dr Bea Lewkowicz, Director of the AJR Refugee Voices Testimony Archive, will explore how the Kinder adapted in Britain and how they dealt with being separated from their families and their homes. The photographic exhibition ‘Still in our Hands’ which features 10 Kinder will be on display.

Insiders/ Outsiders is a nationwide arts festival celebrating refugees from Nazi Europe and their contribution to British culture.

Sponsored by The Rotary Club of Dulwich, Peckham and Crystal Palace
