Welcome to Dulwich Festival

As we move forward from our big 30th anniversary celebrations last year, it is an absolute privilege to join the core team as Festival Director. Working with our wider community to fill places and spaces across Dulwich with arts and culture, I am also keen to consider what the next 30 years may bring.

This year promises another packed programme, with lots of festival favourites, from the ever-popular fairs to the enormous Artists' Open House programme and with multiple talks, walks, music and performance for all ages. There are a few surprises in the mix too, with new collaborations and creative partners to keep you on your toes, in some cases, quite literally! Book now for ticketed events and spot the FREE EVENT badge throughout this guide to discover activities that won't cost you a penny.

We'd love to hear more from our audiences this year; please do join us on social media, send us an email via the website, or fill in a quick survey with our wonderful volunteers to tell us how you'd like your festival to evolve in future years.

Sarah Taylor Dulwich Festival Director

We are delighted to again be the Principal Partner of the Dulwich Festival in its 31st year. As a local, independent agent, we are proud to be associated with initiatives like the Festival that play such an integral role in our community.

Coldharbour Studios

26-34 SOUTHWELL ROAD
SE5 9PG

Step away from the bustle of everyday life and into the haven that is Coldharbour Studios, a creative sanctuary to over 80 artists. Opening its doors for the very first time with a showcase of nine exceptional artists and designers. A great chance to visit these former printworks and be inspired by the artists at work. 11 & 12 May only.

Festival Pop Up

43 DULWICH VILLAGE
SE21 7BN

Situated in the centre of Dulwich Village is our very own Pop Up, the temporary Festival home of six artists.

With a variety of art forms including hand-made jewellery, porcelain lamps, limited edition prints and fine art, it's highly worth a visit. Joe Thomas will also be back in action with his energetic 5-minute, fast portrait sittings.

Havelock Walk

HAVELOCK WALK SE23 3HG

Havelock Walk is a thriving creative community, home to the celebrated and as yet undiscovered. It's a true festival of the arts with so many studios to visit. There's even music and the chance to sample local delicacies from Canvas & Cream and Guava Kitchen. Oh, and did we mention they will be holding a raffle for three original works?

Carnegie Library Hub

192 HERNE HILL ROAD
SE24 0DG

Situated in a beautiful grade II historic building, dating back to 1906, the Carnegie Library Hub is a light-filled, welcoming community space, with elegant architectural features. Opening its doors once again to showcase five wonderful artists, each bringing something special to the show. Set in the artistic community so central to the heart of Herne Hill.

Art Trails

Head to our website to download a selection of curated art trails! While you are exploring, look out for Artists' Open House signboards and enjoy discovering artwork at a leisurely pace or gentle cycle. Take in some of the local highlights and enjoy a refreshment or two along the way! dulwichfestival.co.uk/art-trails

Street Art Walk with Amanda Greatorex

Hear about the rich collection of murals around Dulwich and how this project came

SHOWCASE YOUR CREATIVITY

Dulwich Festival runs three creative competitions and welcomes submissions from amateur artists of various ages and at different stages in their skill development. Online submissions for all competitions open on 1st April and close on 26th April. Please read and follow the guidelines carefully - details at dulwichfestival.co.uk/competitions.

Winners are selected by a respected panel of judges in each category and informed before the Festival opens. Prizes will be awarded at a ceremony on Saturday 11th May at Kingswood House. Follow us on social media for more information and updates.
